

Seacole Group member receives prestigious appointment.

March 2021

The Seacole Group would like to congratulate one of their members, Karen Daber who has recently been appointed Deputy Lieutenant of Cambridgeshire by Her Majesty's Lord-Lieutenant of Cambridgeshire, Mrs Julie Spence OBE QPM.

As a former Assistant Chief Constable, Daber led the development of the national Code of Ethics for policing and the national programme 'BME progress 2018' to improve the representation of minority officers in policing.

About her appointment, Daber expressed her delight and said that her ambition is to:

“shine a light on the wider and diverse communities in the county”

Daber is a non-executive director at Cambridgeshire and Peterborough NHS Foundation Trust. She is also a prominent member of the Seacole Group – the network of Black, Asian and Minority Ethnic Non-Executive Directors in the NHS with a vision that NHS Boards reflect the ethnic diversity of patients and communities they serve.
